

Isobel Thatcher EPK 2025

BIO

Isobel is an award-winning songsmith based in London UK. Isobel blends her love for Wistful Americana and Country music to create a unique lyric-based sound. Influences include Bonnie Raitt, Eva Cassidy, Sheryl Crow and Brad Paisley.

Isobel's self-penned songs have given her a wide range of success singing all over the UK and internationally in venues such as the O2 Shepherds Bush Empire – where she performed her song 'I Won't' which was winner of the Tech Music Schools (BIMM London) 'Song of The Year' as well as: Rampelyset, Denmark, Broadstairs Blues Bash, Swanage Blues Festival, Ain't Nothin' But The Blues Bar, Soho, The Troubadour, London and Ground Zero Blues Club in the USA. This has given Isobel a chance to build her reputation and hone her skills.

This has also led to Isobel being a nominee in the GSMC Awards in both 20/21 for 'Best Female Artist' as well as being a Category Finalist in the Blues & Roots Radio International Songwriting Competition 20/21 with her song 'More Than Words' and in 22/23 with her song 'Wings.'

Isobel independently released her Debut EP 'Keeping On' in 2013, which was recorded with Curved Air legend – Michael Wedgwood at his studios in Denmark. This received radio interest from not only local radio stations but also BBC Introducing UK – the South. This was followed by Isobel's E.P 'On My Own.' On My Own was launched at a sold-out ticketed event in Wiltshire and also at the infamous Bedford in Balham. Isobel also performed tracks from the E.P live on BBC Wiltshire, and it has had nationwide airplay. The record has been described by Rock-Regeneration as: "a plethora of blues influences as well as a good sprinkling of country styles with Isobel's fine vocals being the proverbial cherry on the cake."

Isobel released her single 'Walking Down The Tracks' in October 2020 which is described as a Blues tinged Americana track detailing the troubles of continuing something despite being unquestionably bad news. This has been featured on radio stations such as: Blues & Roots Radio, Country Hits UK (Absolute Radio Country), BBC Wiltshire and many more.

In 2021 & 2022 Isobel released her latest singles 'Forget' & 'Wings' recorded at Tunnel Rat Studios in Salisbury with Guitarist and Producer Jolyon Dixon (The Who, Pete Townsend, Toyah, Judie Tzuke) who also features on 'Wings' and both have since seen nationwide airplay.

QUOTES/REVIEWS

‘...I feel that each song is a pure statement to Isobel’s musical gift & gives this talented artist the chance to deliver a passionate performance for the full duration of this EP...’ - Fierce & Fabulous Revolution Blog

“Carry You” is elevated by a Clarence Clemons-esque saxophone feature (courtesy of Isobel’s brother Dominic Thatcher), an irresistibly catchy chorus melody, and, above all, Thatcher’s vocal delivery, simultaneously compassionate and effortless...” - Bored In Pittsburgh – Track review

‘...a plethora of blues influences as well as a good sprinkling of country styles with Isobel’s fine vocals being the proverbial cherry on the cake...’
Rock Regeneration Album Review

‘On My Own’ is simply a fantastic four track EP that demands your attention. Thatcher places her heart on her sleeve with tracks that highlight not just the joys of love but also the lows and you’d be doing it a disservice by not taking a listen...’ Art Will Fall

‘The most enjoyable aspect of Isobel’s performances is her outstanding voice; she has a smoky tone and elegant delivery. Her voice will enhance any song and take it to new and exciting places.’ - Music Unbuttoned

She is a confident performer with a sparkling voice and well-crafted songs . It was a pleasure to hear and to have a good reason to return to the Troubadour after 20 years, Congratulations.- Sonja Christina (Curved Air)
